XI GRASS Workshop

Bocconi University
13-14 September 2017

CALL FOR PAPERS

GRASS - Social Choice Research Group - is a network of scholars interested in promoting the knowledge and the study of individual and social choice and welfare economics. The aim of the group is to facilitate and encourage the open scientific exchange of ideas between researchers working on a broad range of topics related to individual and social choice.

Every September the network organises a two-day Workshop. Previous editions were held in Siena (2007), Bologne (2008), Padua (2009), Modena (2010), Venice (2011), Rome (2012), Pisa (2013), Turin (2014), Lucca (2015) and Florence (2016). Researchers interested in presenting their work should submit a full paper via email to grassxi.bocconi@gmail.com by July the 1st.

A non-exhaustive list of topics of interest includes:

- Behavioral economics
- Cooperative Games
- Decision Theory
- Economics of social networks
- Experimental Social Choice
- Fairness, Justice, Equity
- Game Theory
- Inequality and Poverty
- Law and Rights
- Market Design
- Mechanism Design
- Optimal Taxation
- Political Economy
- Preference Aggregation
- Public Goods
- Subjective well-being
- Voting and Elections
- Welfare Criteria

The workshop has no registration fees, but all participants have to register in order to be admitted to the conference venue. The Workshop provides lunches and dinner.
